Re: Church of Scientology International v. Armstrong
Our File No. SCI02-003

Dear Mr. Greene:

We received by hand delivery at 5:15 p.m. on March 6 your Notice of Deposition for Martin Samuels. As you also know, we hand served upon your office Notices of Depositions for yourself and your client, Gerald Armstrong. We attempted to hand serve these Notices, and a subpoena for you, during the day on March 5 and during the morning of March 6. However, although numerous attempts were made to contact your office and several actual visits were made to your office, your offices were not open for business. Finally, we instructed our process server to hand deliver the Notices of Depositions to your office which was accomplished at 3:30 p.m. on March 6.

I can't help but wonder whether you decided to Notice the Deposition of Mr. Samuels only after receiving our Notices of Depositions. In any event, since our Notices were given first, we are entitled to proceed with the deposition of Mr. Armstrong on the 18th. I trust that you will make no claim that you are not "available" for that deposition.

Very truly yours,

WILSON, RYAN & CAMPILONGO
